The Department of Economy and Tourism
Service Provider Section in Dubai

The Department of Economic Development (DED) in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) was established to drive economic growth, enhance competitiveness, and diversify the economy. Its primary purpose is to formulate and implement economic policies, support strategic sectors, and provide services to both domestic and international investors and businesses.

Purpose and Goals:

Dubai: The DED in Dubai was formed in March 1992. In October 2008, Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, the Ruler of Dubai, issued Decree No. 25, assigning the DED the responsibility to plan and regulate Dubai's overall economic performance, supervise its functions, and support economic development to achieve the objectives of the Dubai Strategic Plan.
